SICUANI´S DAY

A Read the text

The Day of Sicuani was a joyful and colorful celebration. People celebrated this special day every year in the main square. They watched a big parade and saw beautiful costumes made with bright colors and traditional designs. There was music everywhere, and people danced happily in the streets.

Many families visited the square to enjoy delicious traditional food and spend time together. They tasted dishes like guinea pig on the stick, roasted meat, and sweet desserts. Children played, ran around, and laughed with joy. The musicians played traditional songs, and everyone clapped, sang, and moved to the rhythm of the music.

It was a special time when everyone in the city felt proud to be from Sicuani. The celebration united families, friends, and visitors. Everyone remembered the traditions and culture of their town, showing love and respect for their heritage. At the end of the day, people returned home tired but happy, carrying beautiful memories of the Day of Sicuani.
