Episode 1: Three plus one

- Who said that?

_____

_____

There are three people but there are four bedrooms

I am a very good cook

But he's very quiet

My job's in Oxford

She's number eight. She's the last

_____

_____

_____

- Listen to the extracts from the dialogues, complete the gaps

1. What's _____ job? - I'm a jazz _____ .
2. _____ pounds a month? Great! - Er, no. - _____ a week.
3. - So, Jane, tell us about _____.
   - Tell you _____ ?
   - Anything.
   - I'm from Brighton. I'm a _____ _____ . I don't smoke. I like _____ , good _____ . Yeah! Italian, French, _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Put the missing words, then listen and check.

1. _____ you cook?
2. _____ you have a dog?
3. Do you _____ the drums?
4. That _____ great! Jane, it _____ your room.

- Read the statements, choose true or false. Correct the false sentences.

1. Helen interviewed people for a job. true/false
2. There were eight visitors. true/false
3. Roommates don't like Alan because he is a rock musician. true/false
4. Roommates don't like Sarah because she smokes. true/false
5. Roommates don't like Philip because he is not ready to pay 150 pounds a week. true/false

- Answer the questions.

- How many people lived in the house before the interview? And what are their names?
- _____
- Why do they need another person?
- _____
- Why do they accept Jane?
- _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS