Name: Score:

17 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 17

Evangeline: A Tale of Acadie is a love story (epic poem) between

- swamp and/or wetland
- onion, celery, bell pepper
- They tend to live in or near cities
- Evangeline and Gabriel

Term 2 of 17

What does Cajun cookin uses more

- Cayenne Pepper, belle pepper, and peppercorns
- onion, celery, bell pepper
- Is understood by French speakers around the world
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil

Term 3 of 17

Massachusetts has counties but Louisiana has

- Red Stick
- Acadia
- Baton Rouge
- Parishes

Term 4 of 17

Creole French

- Is understood by French speakers around the world
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil
- A mixed race population consisting of French and African American
- Is NOT understood by French speakers

Term 5 of 17

Baton Rouge in English

- Red Stick
- Acadia
- Parishes
- Baton Rouge

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term

6 of 17

The capital of Louisiana is

- Acadia
- Baton Rouge
- Red Stick
- Parishes

Term

7 of 17

The French city New Orleans is named after.

- New Orleans
- Orléans
- King Louis XIV
- Parishes

Term

8 of 17

Creole People

- Is NOT understood by French speakers
- A mixed race population consisting of French and African American
- Is understood by French speakers around the world
- They tend to live in or near cities

Term

9 of 17

Acadia

- swamp and/or wetland
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil
- Cayenne Pepper, belle pepper, and peppercorns
- Modern day Nova Scotia (don't ya know)

Term

10 of 17

Cajun and Creole cookin both use

- Cayenne Pepper, belle pepper, and peppercorns
- They tend to live in or near cities
- onion, celery, bell pepper
- Is NOT understood by French speakers

Term

11 of 17

The cajun people come from

- Acadia
- Red Stick
- Parishes
- Baton Rouge

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term

12 of 17

Cajun French

- Is understood by French speakers around the world
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil
- A mixed race population consisting of French and African American
- Is NOT understood by French speakers

Term

13 of 17

Louisiana is named after

- Orléans
- New Orleans
- Baton Rouge
- King Louis XIV

Term

14 of 17

Creole cooking uses more

- Is NOT understood by French speakers
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil
- A mixed race population consisting of French and African American
- They tend to live in or near cities

Term

15 of 17

The city best known for Creoles

- King Louis XIV
- Baton Rouge
- Orléans
- New Orleans

Term

16 of 17

Bayou

- Evangeline and Gabriel
- Modern day Nova Scotia (don't ya know)
- Is NOT understood by French speakers
- swamp and/or wetland

Term

17 of 17

Creole People are metropolitan meaning

- A mixed race population consisting of French and African American
- herbs such as rosemary, parsley, and basil
- Is NOT understood by French speakers
- They tend to live in or near cities

LIVEWORKSHEETS