Jenny's Bad Morning

Jenny, a Grade 6 student, was sleeping when her bed started shaking. While the bed was shaking, a strange voice said, "Jenny, wake up! Time to go to school!" "You'll wake everybody up! Stop shaking and talking!" Jenny said. "Sorry," said the bed.

"I'm hungry," said Jenny. "Good morning, Jenny," a robot chair said. She sat on the robot and patted it. The robot carried her to the kitchen. "What would you like for breakfast, Jenny?" asked the fridge.

Jenny said, "Crunchy Crisp Cereal and toast, please." Five seconds later, the fridge opened up and put a bowl of cold cereal in front of her, and the toaster added hot toast with butter.

After breakfast, Jenny sat on the robot chair again, and it took her to her room. Jenny got dressed. "These clothes are too tight," said Jenny. The robot said, "Clothes, be bigger." The clothes got a little bigger. "Perfect!" said Jenny.

It was time for school. Jenny's mom said, "Hurry up, Jenny, get in the Fly Car." "Fly Car? No one rides in Fly Cars anymore," thought Jenny. Jenny wanted to use a Flying Suit to fly her to school. Her mom shook her head. "Sorry, you can't use a Flying Suit until you're 12." Jenny got in the Fly Car. She wasn't happy. She hated being 11! She thought, "I want to be 12! It'll be so much more fun."

5. READ THE TEXT AND COMPLETE USING "WILL" AND "WON'T"

100 years from now, the world will be very different. No one will use smartphones because our phones will be inside our heads! Everyone will use flying cars, and everyone will live in apartments in tall buildings in space. Not like today. Today, many people live in houses. In the future, no one will live in houses any more. Machines will make our food at home and in restaurants. No one will need to cook any more. No one will study in schools because there won't be any school buildings, and we won't have teachers. Everyone will study at home using computers.

- 1 There (be) any teachers.
- 2 We (call) people with cell phones.
- 3 We (live) in apartments in space.
- 4 People (drive) flying cars.
- 5 We (cook). Machines (cook) for us.
