CHOOSE THE RIGHT ARTICLE

_____ Australia is _____ planet's sixth largest country after _____ Russia, _____ Canada, _____ China, _____ United States of America and _____ Brazil. _____ Australia is _____ smallest continent, lying between _____ Pacific and Indian oceans in _____ Southern Hemisphere. Australia's capital is _____ Canberra. _____ Australia is separated from _____ Indonesia to _____ northwest by _____ Timor and Arafura seas, from _____ Papua New Guinea to _____ northeast by _____ Coral Sea and _____ Torres Strait, from _____ Coral Sea Islands by _____ Great Barrier Reef, from _____ New Zealand to _____ southeast by _____ Tasman Sea, and from _____ Antarctica in _____ far south by _____ Indian Ocean. _____ highest point on _____ Australian mainland is _____ Mount Kosciuszko, _____ New South Wales, at 2.228 metres above _____ sea level. _____ lowest point is _____ bed of _____ Lake Eyre, _____ South Australia, which is 15 metres below _____ sea level.

LIVEWORKSHEETS