TRS501 – Part 2

1. The scientist tried to _____ the method carefully so the results would become more reliable.

A. gesture
B. refine
C. thaw
D. fleece

2. The device became completely _____ during the test and stopped responding entirely.

A. saturated
B. humble
C. chronic
D. malfunctioning

3. The new software was designed to _____ better communication between all team members.

A. tough
B. enable
C. fluctuate
D. scab

4. The research was based on real observations, making the findings highly _____ and trustworthy.

A. bizarre
B. sexist
C. empirical
D. destiny

5. His explanation sounded like complete _____ and confused nearly everyone listening.

A. cavity
B. nonsense
C. stimulus
D. perspective

6. The company planned to release the product to the _____ public after final testing.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. thermal
B. innate
C. mainstream
D. quest

7. Her strong _____ to failure stopped her from taking important risks in life.

A. arteries
B. optimism
C. doctrine
D. aversion

8. The singer's popularity continued to _____ noticeably from month to month.

A. portray
B. refine
C. fluctuate
D. trigger

9. The team needed extra time to _____ that all machines were working safely and correctly.

A. thaw
B. pursue
C. ensure
D. derive

10. The company evaluated the final _____ from the project before planning the next steps.

A. innovation
B. output
C. complementary
D. foreground

11. The warmer weather caused the frozen lake to slowly _____ over the weekend.

A. expand
B. constrain
C. thaw
D. accelerate

12. The teacher used several visual _____ in the slides to help students understand better.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. mammal
B. cues
C. ordeal
D. massive

13. After months of treatment, the athlete finally began to _____ from her serious injury.

A. presume
B. engage
C. relocate
D. heal

14. The fabric was beautifully _____ and felt soft and warm to the touch.

A. woven
B. intense
C. robust
D. innovative

15. The museum displayed several ancient _____ created by skilled traditional artisans.

A. arteries
B. boundaries
C. textiles
D. stereotypes

16. The sudden noise was loud enough to _____ the building's security alarm system.

A. constrain
B. portray
C. dispute
D. trigger

17. The company announced an _____ plan to expand into multiple international markets.

A. feminine
B. bizarre
C. ambitious
D. saturated

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. The researcher studied the problem from a new _____ to discover better solutions.

A. scab
B. invader
C. perspective
D. volume

19. Many wild animals have become more _____ as their natural homes continue shrinking.

A. saturated
B. vulnerable
C. punctual
D. universal

20. Smoking can _____ the airways and make physical activity much more difficult.

A. vibrate
B. constrict
C. complement
D. wonder

LIVEWORKSHEETS