Name: Score:

20 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 20

What issues led to the outbreak of the War of 1812?

- In that war, the British were soundly defeated, reminding them that the Americans would fight and would retain their independence as a nation. This made the young U.S. Seem more permanently independent than it had seemed before.
- Battle of New Orleans
- The causes of the War of 1812 were impressment and the use of forts along the U.S. border to incite Native American attacks on settlers.
- As a results of the Battle of New Orleans, Andrew Jackson became a war hero and the United States demonstrate that it would fight to preserve its independence from Great Britain.

Term 2 of 20

What are two examples of French and Spanish colonial influence on the laws passed while Louisiana was a territory.

- Jackson gained the sympathy of the people, who considered him a frontier hero. They thought he had been cheated out of the presidency in 1824, so they enthusiastically voted for him in the next election.
- Louisiana retained the term "parishes" to describe its administrative units, and it used the Napoleonic Code for civil law.
- Many people believed that John Quincy Adams had offered Henry Clay the position of Secretary of State if Clay would use his influence in the House of Representatives to win Adams the presidency.
- $15,000,000; 434,000,000 acres

Term 3 of 20

Why was Henry Clay's appointment to serve as President John Quincy Adams's Secretary of State called a "Corrupt Bargain"?

- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.
- Many people believed that John Quincy Adams had offered Henry Clay the position of Secretary of State if Clay would use his influence in the House of Representatives to win Adams the presidency.
- Louisiana retained the term "parishes" to describe its administrative units, and it used the Napoleonic Code for civil law.
- Jackson gained the sympathy of the people, who considered him a frontier hero. They thought he had been cheated out of the presidency in 1824, so they enthusiastically voted for him in the next election.

Term 4 of 20

What was the purchase price of the Louisiana Territory? How many acres did the U.S. Acquire in this purchase?

- Louisiana retained the term "parishes" to describe its administrative units, and it used the Napoleonic Code for civil law.
- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.
- $15,000,000; 434,000,000 acres
- Many people believed that John Quincy Adams had offered Henry Clay the position of Secretary of State if Clay would use his influence in the House of Representatives to win Adams the presidency.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term

5 of 20

The major battle between two forces which took place the morning of January 8, 1815.

- Action
- Battle of New Orleans
- As a results of the Battle of New Orleans, Andrew Jackson became a war hero and the United States demonstrate that it would fight to preserve its independence from Great Britain.
- In that war, the British were soundly defeated, reminding them that the Americans would fight and would retain their independence as a nation. This made the young U.S. Seem more permanently independent than it had seemed before.

Term

6 of 20

Why was the Louisiana Purchase controversial?

- Impressment. One source of tension between the U.S. And Britain.
- Creoles and Americans
- Because, consequently, gave rise to, produced, resulted in, so and therefore.
- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.

Term

7 of 20

A group that formally elects the President and Vice President.

- Electoral College
- Corrupt Bargin
- Battle of New Orleans
- Action

Term

8 of 20

How did losing in the Corrupt Bargain of 1824 help Andrew Jackson win the presidency in the next election?

- Many people believed that John Quincy Adams had offered Henry Clay the position of Secretary of State if Clay would use his influence in the House of Representatives to win Adams the presidency.
- Jackson gained the sympathy of the people, who considered him a frontier hero. They thought he had been cheated out of the presidency in 1824, so they enthusiastically voted for him in the next election.
- Louisiana retained the term "parishes" to describe its administrative units, and it used the Napoleonic Code for civil law.
- Because, consequently, gave rise to, produced, resulted in, so and therefore.

Term

9 of 20

The results of an event?

- Saber
- Effect
- Clear
- Cause

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term

10 of 20

What were two important outcomes of the Battle of New Orleans?

- As a results of the Battle of New Orleans, Andrew Jackson became a war hero and the United States demonstrate that it would fight to preserve its independence from Great Britain.
- The causes of the War of 1812 were impressment and the use of forts along the U.S. border to incite Native American attacks on settlers.
- Action
- In that war, the British were soundly defeated, reminding them that the Americans would fight and would retain their independence as a nation. This made the young U.S. Seem more permanently independent than it had seemed before.

Term

11 of 20

Why was the War of 1812 sometimes called the "Second War for American Independence"?

- The causes of the War of 1812 were impressment and the use of forts along the U.S. border to incite Native American attacks on settlers.
- As a results of the Battle of New Orleans, Andrew Jackson became a war hero and the United States demonstrate that it would fight to preserve its independence from Great Britain.
- In that war, the British were soundly defeated, reminding them that the Americans would fight and would retain their independence as a nation. This made the young U.S. Seem more permanently independent than it had seemed before.
- Action

Term

12 of 20

Not all cause-effect relationships are _____.

- Grudge
- Cause
- Clear
- Saber

Term

13 of 20

Words that may give one a verbal road map alert you to cause and effect.

- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.
- Creoles and Americans
- Impressment. One source of tension between the U.S. And Britain.
- Because, consequently, gave rise to, produced, resulted in, so and therefore.

Term

14 of 20

An outcome led many to charge that John Q. Adams and Henry Clay had engaged in this during the election of 1824.
This became a nickname for the election outcome.

- The causes of the War of 1812 were impressment and the use of forts along the U.S. border to incite Native American attacks on settlers.
- Electoral College
- Corrupt Bargin
- Action

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 15 of 20

A strong feeling of anger toward someone that for a long time.

- Clear
- Cause
- Grudge
- Saber

Term 16 of 20

The British did this to gain sailors when they had trouble recruiting.

- Impressment. One source of tension between the U.S. And Britain.
- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.
- Because, consequently, gave rise to, produced, resulted in, so and therefore.
- Creoles and Americans

Term 17 of 20

A long heavy sword with a curved blade.

- Cause
- Grudge
- Saber
- Clear

Term 18 of 20

Sometimes an event has more than one cause, or an _____ more than one effect.

- Action
- Battle of New Orleans
- As a results of the Battle of New Orleans, Andrew Jackson became a war hero and the United States demonstrate that it would fight to preserve its independence from Great Britain.
- In that war, the British were soundly defeated, reminding them that the Americans would fight and would retain their independence as a nation. This made the young U.S. Seem more permanently independent than it had seemed before.

Term 19 of 20

Which two groups competed for political control of Louisiana?

- There was no constitutional authority for the president to purchase territory.
- Creoles and Americans
- Cause
- Grudge

Term 20 of 20

This is a sufficient action for an event to occur.

- Grudge
- Cause
- Clear
- Saber

LIVEWORKSHEETS