Raisa is a responsible team leader who always makes sure that every task is completed properly and on time. She is highly organised, which allows her to manage her schedule and responsibilities efficiently. In meetings, Raisa appears confident and speaks clearly, but she remains reserved when it comes to sharing personal opinions. She is helpful to her colleagues and respectful toward everyone, regardless of their position. Raisa is trusting once she has built a good relationship, yet she stays cautious in unfamiliar situations to avoid making careless decisions.

Arman is known for his calm and thoughtful personality. He is responsible in his work and organised in his daily routines, which helps him stay productive under pressure. Although he is confident in his abilities, he can seem reserved in social situations. Arman is helpful and respectful, often offering support without being asked. While he is generally trusting, he becomes suspicious when information is unclear or seems dishonest. This cautious attitude helps him protect himself and others from possible problems.
