- An aim - a goal or objective that someone wants to achieve
- A ban - an official prohibition or rule against something
- A belief - a conviction or principle that someone holds true
- A boycott - refusing to buy or use something as a protest
- A campaign - an organized effort to achieve a goal
- A donation - a gift of money or goods to help a cause
- An end - the final goal or desired outcome
- A proposal - a suggestion or plan for action
- A protest - an expression of disagreement or objection
- A signature - a person's name written by themselves, often on a petition
- A supporter - a person who backs or helps a cause
- A volunteer - a person who offers to help without payment

Part B: Multiple Choice

Choose the best answer (A, B, or C):

1. What is a goal or objective someone wants to achieve?
    - A) A ban
    - B) An aim
    - C) A protest
2. What is an official prohibition against something?
    - A) A campaign
    - B) A ban
    - C) A donation
3. What is a conviction or principle someone holds true?
    - A) A belief
    - B) A proposal
    - C) A signature
4. What is refusing to buy something as a protest?
    - A) A donation
    - B) A boycott
    - C) A volunteer
5. What is an organized effort to achieve a goal?
    - A) A campaign
    - B) An end
    - C) A ban
6. What is a gift of money or goods to help a cause?
    - A) A signature
    - B) A donation
    - C) A proposal
7. What is an expression of disagreement?
    - A) A protest
    - B) A supporter

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- C) A volunteer

8. What is a person who offers to help without payment?
    - A) A supporter
    - B) A volunteer
    - C) A signature

LIVEWORKSHEETS