"Should Say" Comics

How to Give Advice

We use the verb should to give advice or make suggestions. It tells someone what is the right or good thing to do.

Pattern: Person + should + verb (base form)

- Positive: You should wear a helmet.
- Negative: You should not (shouldn't) run near the pool.

> 💡 Tip: When writing comics, keep your advice short and clear so it fits in the speech bubble!

Comic Strip Challenge

Look at the situations below. Something is wrong in each scene! Act as the friend or helper and write the best advice in the "Speech Bubble" box using should or shouldn't.

Scene 1: The Hairy Situation

Sarah outs her hair inside her jacket which isn't allowed in school.
What advice should her friend give?

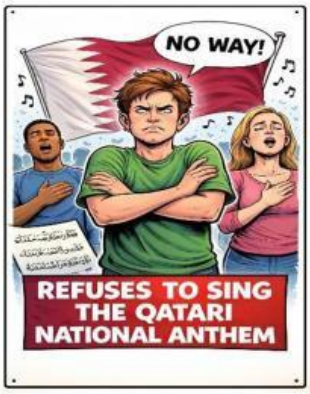
Scene 2: Sticky Situation

Ali is sitting in class chewing gum, and it'll get him in trouble with his teacher.
What advice should his friend give?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Scene 3: Late Night Scrolling

Fatima has a big math test tomorrow morning at 8:00 AM, but she is still on social media till midnight.
What advice should her mother give her?



Scene 4: Anthem Refusal

Ahmed is refusing to sing the Qatari national anthem.
What advice should his friend say?

Create Your Own Comic Panel

Think of a problem (like a stomach ache, a lost toy, or a broken pencil). Draw the scene in the box below and write a speech bubble with advice using should.

LIVEWORKSHEETS