GERUND / "TO " INFINITIVE

1. Choose the correct answer.

1. I admire Greta Thunberg for fighting / to fight for the environment.
2. Teaching / To teach is a way of influencing the lives of young people.
3. It's too cold to play / playing football outside today.
4. Will you try to come / coming to my concert, please?
5. Stop to make / making noise, please. You'll wake up your little sister.
6. Does anyone feel like going / to go for a walk?

2. Complete the sentences with the verbs below. Use the gerund or infinitive form.

clean • hear • not show • ride • miss • wait

1. My brother and I offered _____ the house this weekend.
2. _____ for the bus is so boring!
3. I'm sorry for _____ my appointment, Dr Cummings.
4. Brad wants _____ his bike to school today.
5. We promised _____ the photos to anyone.
6. It's wonderful _____ that you passed all your exams!

3. Complete both sentences with the same verb in bold. Use the gerund or infinitive form.

talk

a. When the head teacher came into the room, everyone stopped _____.

b. The head teacher stopped _____ to students in the corridor.

visit

a. _____ the Taj Mahal last year was incredible!

b. Don't forget _____ our website for more information.

meet

a. I must remember _____ Nick and Allie after school today.

b. I'm sorry. I don't remember _____ you before. What's your name again?

4. Complete the sentences with the verbs below. Use gerunds or infinitives. Tick the sentence that can take both a gerund and an infinitive.

be • meet • raise • receive • upload • write

1. According to actress Emma Watson, _____ a role model is difficult.
2. To have a popular channel, it's important _____ new content regularly.
3. In 1882, Christine Ladd-Franklin wasn't allowed _____ a degree just because she was a woman.
4. He looks forward to _____ Kylian Mbappé, the famous footballer.
5. Have you thought about _____ a letter to the mayor?
6. She has begun _____ money for developing her invention.

LIVEWORKSHEETS