Primary 5/6

Week 14

The Write Tribe

QUICK RECAP

NAME:

DATE:

RECAP

DATE: 25 APRIL

The Write Tribe

LIVEWORKSHEETS

INTRODUCTION

Weather

Personification (Give human qualities)
E.g The rain clouds were having a wrestling match up above in the skies

Use personification to describe weather

_____

_____

Weather

Metaphor (Compare it to something else)
E.g It was raining cats and dogs

Use a metaphor to describe weather

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Weather

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g It was raining like a waterfall

Use a simile to describe weather

_____

_____

INTRODUCE CHARACTERS

TALL PERSON

Metaphor (Compare it to something else)
E.g He was a towering giant.

Use a metaphor

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

TALL PERSON

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g Jake was as tall as the tallest lamp post in the city

Use a simile

_____

_____

INTRODUCE PLACES

HAUNTED HOUSE

Personification (Give human qualities)
E.g The eerie windows of the house glared at us, warning us not to come near.

Use personification to describe the haunted house

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

CHALLENGE

Metaphor (Compare it to something else)
E.g The chances of winning the competition was like finding a needle in a haystack!

Use a metaphor

_____

_____

STAGE FRIGHT

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g Pale as a ghost, I stood rooted to the ground as I stared at the sea of faces.

Use a simile

_____

_____

The Write Tribe

LIVEWORKSHEETS

FORESHADOWING

Do not reveal but indicate what a reader can look forward to in your story.

E.g I was expecting everything to go without a hitch. Little did I know, I was dead wrong!

Match the foreshadows

Little did I know	for the events that were about to unfold that day
Nothing could prepare me for	what fate had in store for me
Never in my wildest dreams did I	expect something bad was going to happen that day.

The Write Tribe

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ANTICIPATION

The glass fell and broke

vs

I couldn't believe what I saw next. → ANTICIPATION
The glass fell and broke.

ANTICIPATION PHRASES
What happened next made my blood boil.	Nothing could prepare me for the next moment.
I couldn't believe what I was seeing	What I saw broke my heart
The next moment was jaw-dropping	Something unbelievable happened next.

Use the anticipation phrases to make the sentences more interesting.

1. I forgot my lines.

_____

_____

2. I won first prize!

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. John broke my favourite toy.

_____

_____

4. Greg the bully punched Tiny Tim!

_____

_____

5. There was a big fat F glaring at me on my test paper.

_____

_____

6. I found my lost wallet on the floor

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS