NAME: _____ CLASS: _____

REPRODUCTION IN HUMAN

1) Drag and drop the answer in the box provided.

Patients X, Y and Z are suspected to have different sexually transmitted infections (STIs) with the following signs and symptoms.

Patient X - Painful when urinating with yellow pus discharged.
Patient Y - Painful when urinating with cloudy discharged and pain in the testes.
Patient Z - Lesions on the skin and ulcers on the mouth and vagina.

Based on the signs and symptoms above, which of the following correctly identifies the infection that patients X, Y and Z are suffering from?

Chlamydia | Gonorrhoea | Syphilis

Patient X	Patient Y	Patient Z

2) Write TRUE or FALSE of the following sentences:

a) Using the same injection needles for patients will not spread AIDS. ☐

b) HIV stands for Human Immunodeficiency Virus. ☐

3) Match the word and description below.

AIDS	It is caused by bacteria which causes painless sores and ulcers in the mouth and external genitals.
STIs	If a woman has this infection, pus from vagina may spread to uterus and oviducts.
Chlamydia	Infections that can be transferred from one person to another through any sexual contact.
Gonorrhoea	It is caused by HIV virus which still has no cure.
Syphilis	A person who has this infection tend to suffer from a burning sensation when urinating.

LIVEWORKSHEETS