They're really funny!

A. VOCABULARY: Describing people; really / very

Circle the correct answer.

1

a Her husband is tall.
b Her husband is really tall.
c Her husband isn't very tall.

2

a Nicolas is boring.
b Nicolas is really boring.
c Nicolas isn't very boring.

3

a My brother isn't very shy.
b My brother isn't shy.
c My brother is very shy.

4

a Celia is smart.
b Celia isn't smart.
c Celia isn't very smart.

B. GRAMMAR: is not / are not

Complete the sentences. Use 's, is, 're, are, or isn't, aren't or not.

1 Sachi is from Los Angeles. She's not from Peru.
2 My uncle's not very interesting. _____ boring.
3 My brother and I are in college. _____ very smart.
4 He _____ really tall, but I'm short.
5 My children are 2 and 4. _____ very old.
6 Joe is my dog. _____ really friendly!

Write the sentences again. Use 's not, isn't, 're not, and aren't.

1 You are not boring. You are funny.
You're not boring. You're funny!
2 My sister is not tall, and she is not old. She is five.
3 Mr. May is not my teacher, and he is not your teacher. He is the chef at our school.
4 Dr. Norton is not here, and she is not at home. She is at the college.
5 Rita and Lara are not sisters, and they are not cousins. They are friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS