Pick the correct form: Future Perfect, be going to, or will.

1. By the end of the year, I (will / am going to / will have) have saved enough money for a new phone.
2. Look at those dark clouds! It (will rain / is going to rain / will have rained) soon.
3. Wait a second, I (will call / am going to call / will have called) you a taxi.
4. They (will finish / are going to finish / will have finished) painting the room tomorrow morning.
5. By the time you arrive, the film (will start / is going to start / will have started).
6. "I don't have a pen." — "No problem, I (will lend / am going to lend / will have lent) you one."

LIVEWORKSHEETS