7e Red nose day

A. Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

advise bazaar fundraiser race sale variety

1. The _____ was very successful. People donated over £3,000!
2. Do you have any clothes you don't wear any more? My school is organising a clothing _____ to raise money for new computers.
3. We'd like to donate some money to charity. Can you _____ us on how to choose one?
4. The farmer's market has a big _____ of fruit and vegetables.
5. Do you want to _____ to the corner? The person who gets there first wins!
6. A: Can you help out at the bake _____ on Saturday?
   B: Sure! I'll bring cupcakes.

B. Complete the dialogue with the phrases a-e.

a. All you have to do is listen.
b. It's for a good cause.
c. Let me give you a hand.
d. What can I do for you?
e. Would you mind helping me out?

A: Grandpa, I'm working on something.
(1) _____
B: Oh, I always have time for you, Fred.
(2) _____
A: I've written some jokes, and I want to tell them to someone to see if they're funny or not. So, can you come into the living room? (3) _____ Don't try to laugh or anything. I want to see what you really think.
B: Well, sure. No problem. But why are you working on jokes?
A: (4) _____ We're having a comedy show at school to raise money for charity. It's called stand-up comedy. So, I'll stand over there, and you can imagine I'm on a stage.
B: Well, if you're the only one standing up, then OK. Because I need to sit down.
A: Ha ha. You're pretty funny too. Here.
(5) _____
B: Thanks, Fred. Now I'm all ears.

C. Read the description of an event, and complete with the sentences a-e.

a. Last year, the sleep out raised £6,500 for people in need.
b. Those who sign up for the sleep out challenge must sleep outside in their sleeping bags for the whole night.
c. If you want to volunteer for this wonderful event, click on www.bigsleepoutscotland.org for details.
d. It also helps them realise how hard it is to rely only on the kindness of other people for food and shelter.
e. This event helps raise money for people in need, and it also lets people experience how difficult it is to be homeless.

The Sleep Out Challenge

Every year, during the last week of January, the people of Lakeside, a town in Scotland, hold a sleep out in Lake Drive Park.
(1) _____
The way that it works is simple. (2) _____ Others can support the challenge by donating money, which goes to helping homeless people in the city. Volunteers can also help by bringing hot drinks and food to keep the sleepers warm. Donations like those are welcomed because January nights in Scotland are usually very cold.
(3) _____ That's a good amount, but those who take part in the challenge believe that the most important part of the event is that it helps everyone keep in mind that many people sleep outside every night. (4) _____
The sleep out is a great event because the whole community comes together to help. (5) _____ Why not sleep outside for a good cause?

LIVEWORKSHEETS