Mango

Anna had a wonderful pet bird named Mango. Mango was a colourful bird with bright green and yellow feathers that shone in the sunlight. He had a long and beautiful tail, sharp claws, and big wings that he loved to spread out. Mango had many hobbies, but his favourite was singing. Anna often heard him whistling cheerful tunes.

Mango was also an expert flyer, and he loved to fly around the room in circles. Anna was amazed by Mango's flying skills. She watched him with wonder and admiration. Anna and Mango shared many happy memories together. Anna loved teaching Mango new songs, and Mango loved singing them back to her. They spent hours together playing and singing, and Anna loved every moment they spent together.

Even though Mango flew away, Anna still remembers him fondly and will always love the memories they shared. Mango was more than just a pet to Anna. He was a special friend who brought joy and happiness to her life.
