Reading + Simple Present + Personal Use

Part 1. Reading: True or False

Tom's Routine
"Tom is 12 years old. He wakes up at 6:45. He puts on his uniform and walks to school. After school, he plays soccer with his friends. He reads books twice a week and he laughs a lot with his classmates. He only watches TV once a week at night."

Statements:

1. Tom wakes up at 7. T/F
2. Tom puts on his uniform. T / F
3. He walks to school. T / F
4. He watches TV every day. T / F
5. He reads books twice a week. T / F
6. He plays soccer once a month. T / F

B. Fill in the blanks (simple present form)

Use: walk, read, put on, shout, laugh, drop, jump, cook

1. She _____ her jacket every morning.
2. We _____ to school every day.
3. He _____ his pencil in class.
4. They _____ happily in the playground.
5. My mom _____ dinner.
6. The boys _____ out of the car.
7. You _____ loudly sometimes.
8. She _____ a book once a week.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. About YOU – Short answers. Remember you need to use action verbs in your sentences.

1. What do you do every day?
   → _____
2. What do you do once a week?
   → _____
3. What do you do twice a week?
   → _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS