UNUSUAL HOMES AROUND THE WORLD

Fill in the missing words using the WORD BANK below.

WORD BANK

unusual – narrowest – architect – space – apartment block area – solar panel – produce – electricity – pollution feature – earn – branch – tower – several

1. Keret House could be the world's _____ home and is just 122 cm at its widest point.
2. A Polish _____ living in the country's capital decided to build something there.
3. He walked past the _____ between a house and an apartment block one day.
4. The house was built between a house and an _____.
5. The _____ around Keret House is full of things to do and see.
6. Crossway is an _____ home designed by architect Richard Hawkes.
7. The house uses little energy because the sun helps _____ all its electricity.
8. A _____ on the roof uses sunlight to create energy.
9. The house has a living roof which reduces _____.
10. These unusual features helped the house _____ prizes.
11. The floors are at different levels, like tree _____.
12. Freston Tower is a historic _____ in southern England.
13. There are _____ floors with a single small room on each one.
14. Pas House is divided into three separate spaces, each ideal for skateboarding and theatre _____.
15. In winter, the house stays warm without _____, so it is cheaper to live in.

Keret House – Poland

Crossway – England

Freston Tower – England

Pas House – Spain

LIVEWORKSHEETS