Country roads

Henry Kilburn loves fast cars. One day, he looks out of the window and sees that the sun is shining brightly.

"It's a good day for a drive in the country," he said to himself, happily.

So he sets off in his shiny red sports car and turns on the radio loudly. He starts singing merrily to one of his favourite tunes and he puts his foot down on the accelerator. The car is moving quickly through the countryside, when he goes over the top of a hill and sees another car moving towards him. The woman in the car is driving very slowly, and she is honking her car horn.

As Henry passes her, she rolls the car window down, puts her head out and shouts loudly, "Pig! Pig!"

"Ridiculous," Henry thinks to himself angrily, "I know I'm driving fast, but I'm driving carefully. Just because I'm driving fast, it doesn't mean I'm driving badly."

"Stupid cow!" he shouts at her out of his window and drives away even faster.

Around the next corner he crashes his car into a pig.
