Lesson 6: Jobs
Unit 1 TRACK 2

1

A: So what you do?

B: I'm an engineer.

A: Oh, right. Where do you work?

B: Well, I travel around _____ a lot, actually.

A: Oh, OK.

B: Yeah, I'm _____in Scotland at the moment – in Glasgow. They're _____ a new sports stadium there and I'm working on that.

A: Really? So where do you live, then?

B: Well, in London most of the time, but I'm r___ an apartment in Glasgow while I'm there. I usually come down to London every two weeks, if I can.

A: And do you enjoy it?

B: Yeah, it's ___. I don't really mind the travelling and the money's good. Plus, I don't really have much time to spend it!

A: Well, I guess that's good, then. What are the hours l___?

B: Oh, I usually work quite l___hours. I mean, I often do a sixty-hour week.

A: Really? That sounds ___.

B: No, it's good and l__ __ really well with the other people I work with.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2

C: So, what do you do?

D: Oh, I work __ a small company back in Korea, but I'm actually a student at the moment.

C: Oh, OK. What are you studying?

D: I'm doing a Master's ____ in Marketing.

C: Is that what you do in your company? Marketing?

D: Yes, ___of.

C: So how long have you worked there?

D: About two years now.

C: Only two years and they're sending you to another country to study! That's ____!

D: Yeah, well, actually my father r___ the company and he wants me to become the marketing manager.

C: Oh, right. I see. So do you __ ___ with the other people you work with?

D: Yeah, we get on OK, but it can be difficult sometimes because I'm the boss's daughter, you know?

C: Yeah, I can ___.

D: I sometimes feel like I have to work harder to show everyone I can actually do my job.

C: I'm s___.

LIVEWORKSHEETS