

Moving out

A: How's it going, Jim? This is Olivia.

B: Hello, Olivia. What's up?

A: I wanted to let you know that I have to move out.

B: I'm sorry to hear that. When are you moving ?

A: The thirtieth of June.

B: May I ask why you're leaving?

A: I found a new job.

B: Good for you! What's your new job?

A: I am an ESL teacher at Pasadena City College.

B: Very good! What does ESL mean?

A: ESL means English as a Second Language.

B: Well, I'm glad you're not moving because of your neighbors.

A: I can't tell you how happy I'll be not to have to listen to their TV.

B: Yes, I'm going to tell them one more time to turn down their TV and keep it down.

A: You've been a good apartment manager and a good person. I'll see you in June.

B: Thank you. I hope your new job and new apartment are good for you.
