HOMEWORK – KET 3

Topic: The Search for Happiness

Name: _____

Date: _____

Part A. Vocabulary Matching

Match the words with their meanings.

1. Happiness ____
2. Future ____
3. Ambition ____
4. Teenager ____
5. Persuasive ____

a. A young person between 13 and 19 years old.
b. A feeling of joy and satisfaction.
c. Something that makes people believe an idea.
d. Time that has not happened yet.
e. A strong desire to achieve something.

Part B. Multiple Choice

6. Who wrote "The Search for Happiness"?
a) Steve Jobs
b) Charissa Newkirk
c) A psychologist
d) A teacher

7. What is the main theme of the article?
a) Friendship
b) Technology
c) The search for happiness
d) Sports

8. The theme of the article is expressed:
a) Implicitly
b) Explicitly
c) Through pictures only
d) Through statistics only

9. Who is the main audience of the article?
a) Parents

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) Young people
c) Teachers
d) Doctors

10. What technique does the writer use?
a) Personal opinions
b) Recipes
c) Experiments
d) Maps

Part C. True or False

11. ____ The article is a magazine article.
12. ____ The writer is another teenager.
13. ____ The author uses persuasive language.
14. ____ The article is about becoming a professional athlete.
15. ____ Happiness and the future are important topics in the text.

Part D. Writing

16. What do you think is important for happiness in the future?

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ANSWER KEY

Part A: 1-b, 2-d, 3-e, 4-a, 5-c
Part B: 6-b, 7-c, 8-b, 9-b, 10-a Part C: 11-T, 12-T, 13-T, 14-F, 15-T

Sample Writing Answer:
I think good health, family, and friends are important for happiness in the future. They help people feel supported and successful.

LIVEWORKSHEETS