HOLIDAYS IN PANAMA

There are a definitely a lot of holidays during the year. So many in fact, that the number often some surprises foreigners who transplant themselves to Panama.

Due to Panama's cultural diversity and history, there is an interesting mix of official holidays. Every province has its own calendar as well, but in this post we list the Panamanian Holidays:

January 1, New Year's Day.

January 9, Martyrs' Day (Panama).

February 14, Valentine´s Day

February 18-21, Carnival (Panama)

April, Holy Week (Panama)

November 3, Independence Day (from Colombia).

November 4, Flag Day.

November 5, Colon Day.

November 10, "Primer Grito de Independencia de la Villa de los Santos".

November 28, Independence Day (from Spain).

December 8, Mother´s Day

December 25, Christmas

LIVEWORKSHEETS

HOLIDAYS IN PANAMA

1. When is Flag Day celebrated?
2. When is Christmas celebrated?
3. What is celebrated on January 9?
4. When is the Independence Day from Spain celebrated?
5. What is celebrated on February 14?
6. In what month is Holy Week celebrated?
7. In what month is Carnival celebrated in Panama?

It is celebrated on April

It is celebrated on November 4

Valentine's Day is celebrated on February 14.

It is celebrated on February

It is celebrated on December 25.

Martyr´s Day is celebrated on January 9.

It is celebrated on November 28.

LIVEWORKSHEETS