PRESENT SIMPLE OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS? PRIDE MONTH

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in brackets in the Present Simple or Present Continuous.

1. Every June, many cities _____ Pride parades to celebrate diversity. (organize)
2. Look! The students _____ rainbow posters for the school event. (make)
3. My friend always _____ a Pride pin on her backpack in June. (wear)
4. This week, our teacher _____ us about the history of the LGBTQ+ community. (teach)
5. People often _____ colorful flags during Pride celebrations. (carry)
6. Listen! The crowd _____ a song about love and acceptance. (sing)
7. My cousin usually _____ Pride events with his friends every year. (attend)
8. At the moment, volunteers _____ the community center. (decorate)
9. Many families _____ that everyone deserves respect and equality. (believe)
10. Right now, I _____ a poster about inclusion for our classroom. (design)
11. Every year, our town _____ a special concert during Pride Month. (have)
12. Be quiet! The speaker _____ a story about coming out. (tell)
13. My classmates sometimes _____ books about famous LGBTQ+ activists. (read)
14. Today, people around the world _____ messages of support. (share)
15. Sarah usually _____ her rainbow bracelet to school on Fridays. (bring)
16. Look at them! They _____ together in the Pride parade. (dance)
17. Our teacher often _____ us to respect different identities. (encourage)
18. This month, the museum _____ an exhibition about LGBTQ+ history. (present)
19. Every June, thousands of people _____ to celebrate love and equality. (come)
20. Right now, my friends _____ banners before the Pride event. (finish)

LIVEWORKSHEETS