Possessive Pronouns
Independence Day

Fill in the blanks with: my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. I have a small American flag. _____ flag is on my desk.
2. Tom is wearing a red T-shirt for the parade. _____ T-shirt has stars on it.
3. Sarah bought fireworks for the celebration. _____ fireworks are very colorful.
4. We are having a picnic in the park. _____ picnic starts at noon.
5. You have a new hat with the American flag. _____ hat looks great.
6. The dog is wearing a blue bandana for Independence Day. _____ bandana has white stars.
7. My friends are going to watch the fireworks tonight. _____ favorite place is near the river.
8. I made a cake for the party. _____ cake has red, white, and blue icing.
9. Emily is carrying a basket to the picnic. _____ basket is full of sandwiches.
10. David bought a small flag. _____ flag is in his backpack.
11. We decorated the garden for the celebration. _____ garden looks beautiful.
12. You are bringing hot dogs to the barbecue. _____ hot dogs smell delicious.
13. The cat is playing with a tiny flag. _____ flag is on the floor.
14. My parents love Independence Day. _____ house has many decorations.
15. I am wearing a T-shirt with stars and stripes. _____ T-shirt is new.
16. Anna has a red balloon for the parade. _____ balloon is very big.
17. The children have sparklers. _____ sparklers are in a box.
18. We are watching the parade downtown. _____ seats are near the street.
19. You have a basket for the picnic. _____ basket is next to the table.
20. Peter is eating a hamburger at the barbecue. _____ hamburger is very big.

LIVEWORKSHEETS