

Jobs and routines-worksheet 3

Read about

Working Dogs

Working DOGS

People do lots of different jobs, but animals can do some jobs better than people. Here are three working dogs. They're all very good at their jobs.

Lady is a guide dog. Lady's owner, Robert, is blind. He can't see. Lady wears a harness and she guides Robert along the pavements. She stops at roads and steps. She guides Robert around dangerous objects.

Josh is a mountain rescue dog. He works with a team of rescue workers in Scotland. Josh has got a very good sense of smell. He uses his nose to find people lost in the mountains.

Milton is a sheepdog. He works with a sheep farmer. Milton helps the farmer guide sheep from one field to another field. The farmer whistles to communicate with Milton. Milton understands.

DO YOU KNOW...?
There are about 4,500 guide dogs in the UK.

Now choose the correct option.

1. Which dog has got a very good sense of smell?

_____ has got a very good _____.

2. Which dog wears a harness?

_____ wears a _____.

3. Which dog works with a team of people?

_____ works with a _____.

4. Which dog works with animals?

_____ works with _____.

5. How does the farmer communicate with Milton?

The farmer _____ to communicate with _____.

6. How does Lady help Robert?

_____ guides Roberts _____ and around _____.