Anna (Belgium)
My favourite thing about London is the view from the bridge near Big Ben. We crossed the bridge about eight times when we were in London last month and every time I thought the view was fantastic! You can see all along the River Thames. You can see the Houses of Parliament and that big wheel called the 'London Eye'. We didn't go on it this time but maybe on our next visit. At night the view is even better. All the lights are on and it's beautiful. There are restaurants on the boats and there are always lots of people walking along the river. Something else you can see from the bridge is the difference between the buildings. There are old and new buildings together. I like to imagine London a hundred years ago – with all the horses and dirty roads. Perhaps people weren't always in a hurry like they are today. I think it was still a lovely city. From the bridge you can see all the history of this old city – that's why I like this view.
Martina (Spain)
I like London a lot. But my favourite thing in London isn't Trafalgar Square or Big Ben – it's London taxis! That sounds strange, I know! But I think they're wonderful and the cab drivers are so nice! London taxis are big and black and there's a lot of space in them. You can get six people in them! There's a little glass door between the passengers and the driver. I think that's to protect the driver. Sometimes the passengers are a problem. One driver said that a passenger tried to steal his money last week. The taxi drivers know everything about London. It's an enormous city with lots of roads and little streets. The taxi drivers have to take a special test when they want to be a taxi driver. It's called 'The Knowledge'. They have to learn where everything is in London and all the directions to get there. Our taxi drivers were very clever and also very helpful. They didn't get lost once! And even when it was very busy they drove carefully and quickly. I'd like to be a London taxi driver but I think it's a very difficult job!
