

COLLOCATIONS: GO

Go climbing	Go fishing	Go horse riding	Go parachuting
Go crazy	Go on foot	Go bankrupt	Go missing

COLLOCATIONS: DO

1. Used when we talk about general activities:

Do nothing Do something interesting

2. We do most of the housework

Do the washing up Do the cleaning
Do the vacuuming Do the ironing
Do chores Do the gardening

3. Other collocations have no rules:

Do your best
Do a project
Do research
Do your hair / your makeup / your nails

Do a favour (=do a solid)
Do a job
Do work
Do a crossword
Do business
Do a test / an exam
Do exercise
Do good
Do harm
Do homework

Your notes:

COLLOCATIONS: MAKE

1. It is basically used for constructing or creating

Make a video Make a film

2. We make some housework

Make your bed Make an omelet
Make dinner

3. Other collocations have no rules

Make plans
Make arrangements
Make a fool of yourself
Make a fuss
Make someone do something
Make fun of

Make an effort
Make a date
Make a call
Make a complaint
Make a presentation
Make a speech
Make sense
Make someone happy

Make noises
Make a fortune
Make a deal
Make a decision
Make a suggestion
Make friends
Make sure
Make trouble

Your notes:

COLLOCATIONS: GET

1. Get + adjective = become

Get annoyed Get older
Get angry Get old

2. Obtain and contract illnesses

Get a cold
Get good results

3. Arrive

Get home
Get to the airport

Your notes:

COLLOCATIONS: HAVE

Have a party (=throw a party)
Have a discussion
Have an argument
Have fun
Have a lesson

Have a baby
Have a lecture
Have a dream
Have a haircut

COLLOCATIONS: TAKE

Take your time
Take a picture
Take a chance
Take seriously

Take care
Take a risk
Take part in
Take a long time

COLLOCATIONS: HAVE or TAKE

British English

have a shower, have a drink, have something to eat, have a look, have a rest, have a break, have a holiday,...

American English

take a shower, take a drink, take something to eat, take a look, take a rest, take a break, take a holiday,...

Your notes:

Practise. Complete these collocations with the adequate verb, conjugating it into its correct tense.

I'm sorry to hear you an argument with your brother last night

So, what time did you home last night?

It's not that simple; we should start an effort

Many people bankrupt because they were spending more money than what they had.

I really annoyed when I heard him shouting at the dog

Stop a fool of yourself, it's time for you to grow up!

I have never had my nails in a salon, they are really expensive

