VOCABULARY Adjectives

1 Look at the pictures and choose the correct answers.

1. John is feeling predictable / relaxed.
2. Anna's room is sensitive / messy.
3. Danny is cheerful / careless today.
4. Jill feels anxious / courageous right now.
5. Frank is very charming / efficient.
6. Maya's big brother is sometimes nasty / skilful to her.
7. Tommy is very proud / truthful.
8. Tracy is wearing a sensible / ridiculous outfit right now.

2 Complete the adjectives according to the clues.

1. tidy: n ....
2. honest: t .... f ....
3. brave: c .... g ....
4. positive about the future: h ..... p ....
5. very interested in something: c .... s
6. does tasks effectively: e .... n .....
7. attractive, friendly: p .... s ....

3 Complete the sentences with the words below.

sensible • predictable • careless • sensitive skilful

1. The boys were ..... when they crossed the road without looking.
2. Suzie made a ..... decision when she stayed in to study for an exam.
3. She's very ..... to other people's feelings.
4. The story was ..... because the plot was similar to many other stories.
5. The ..... pianist played beautifully.

4 Complete the sentences in a logical way. Pay attention to the words in bold.

1. Kim felt proud because .....
.....
2. I felt anxious when .....
.....
3. The firefighters were courageous when .....
.....
4. It was sensible of you to .....
.....
5. The skilful artist .....
.....

LANGUAGE Defining relative clauses

5 Choose the correct relative pronoun in A. Then match A to B to form sentences with defining relative clauses.

A

1. In books, I don't like characters who / where
2. Tom's Books is the shop where / when
3. Let me show you a poem who / that
4. JRR Tolkien is a writer which / whose
5. The 1700s was a time when / whose

B

..... a. I buy most of my books.
..... b. name is known all over the world.
..... c. I wrote last week.
..... d. are always predictable.
..... e. many people didn't know how to read books.

LIVEWORKSHEETS