A day in New York

A. VOCABULARY: places in the city

Match the sentences (1–14) with the places (a–n).

1	"I like animals."	n	a bookstore
2	"I want a new book."	_____	b café
3	"I'm a doctor."	_____	c college
4	"I love movies."	_____	d hospital
5	"I'm a student, and I'm 20 years old."	_____	e hotel
6	"I'm a student, and I'm 12 years old."	_____	f mall
7	"I'm from the United States. I'm in Lima for five days."	_____	g movie theater
8	"I love pictures by great artists."	_____	h museum
9	"I want an expensive dinner."	_____	i park
10	"I want coffee and a cookie."	_____	j restaurant
11	"My children play with their friends after school."	_____	k school
12	"I don't have milk or sugar at home."	_____	l store
13	"I want some earphones, a camera, and tea."	_____	m supermarket
14	"I want new furniture."	_____	n zoo

B. GRAMMAR: there's/there are

Complete the sentences about Amy's apartment. Use there's or there are.

I live in a small town. In our town_____ a big park, but _____ no zoo. _____ a big supermarket, too, and _____ three stores. My daughter goes to school and my husband is a teacher at the school. _____ an interesting bookstore. _____ two really good restaurants!

Complete the conversation about Don's hotel. Use no, a, some, a lot of.

Do you like your hotel, Don?

Yes, I do. It's a big hotel! There are [1] _____ rooms.

Does the hotel have a restaurant?

Yes, it has [2] _____ big restaurant. I eat breakfast in the restaurant every day.

What about the restaurants near the hotel? Are they good?

Yes. There are [3] _____ great restaurants near the hotel. Italian, Japanese, Spanish …

And is your room good?

It's OK. There's [4] _____ desk, [5] _____ chair, and [6] _____ big TV, but there's [7] _____ sofa. It's not good!

LIVEWORKSHEETS