IV. Read the following passage. Decide whether the statements from 23 to 26 are True or False and choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D) to complete the statements in the questions 27 and 28. (1.5 pts).

A summer job will give you the chance to earn money and get some work experience, as well as learn new skills. Many teenagers think that it will be difficult to find a job because they don't have as much experience as adults. However, that's not the case at all. Many employers like to give jobs to young people because they have lots of energy and enthusiasm. Before you apply for a job, make a list of the skills you have so you can write them on your application form. Not sure which job would be best for you? Here are some ideas to get you started.

Can you play football, basketball or tennis? Are you good at teaching people new skills? Then a sports coach could be the job for you. Working as a sports coach allows you to spend time outside, play the sports you love and get paid for it! It will give you useful experience of working with young people, which is ideal if you are thinking of doing a teaching course in the future.

Working with elderly people is a really good way of helping others while giving something back to the community. You will help elderly people who can't go to the supermarket, so having a car would be very useful. However, if you don't, there are a lot of other things that you can do. You can help them use computers, clean their homes, do the gardening and simply be there to keep them company. Contact your local care home to find out about opportunities for summer work.

23. Teenagers believe that looking for a job is challenging due to their lack of experience.

24. You should list your abilities before submitting a job application.

25. Being a sports instructor only involves playing your favorite sports.

26. Supporting the elderly is a way to help others and contribute to society.

27. What is suggested if you don't have a car while working with elderly people?

A. You should contact your local care home. B. You can help with various tasks.
C. You should look for a different job. D. You can only work part-time.
