In the 1920s, teachers in Argentina had to follow many strict rules. They had to dress modestly, arrive early every day, keep their classrooms clean, and always behave properly. Female teachers were not allowed to wear bright clothes, go out late at night, or get married in some schools.

1. Teachers couldn't arrive late because they had to be _____. (reliable)

2. Female teachers couldn't wear colourful dresses because they were considered _____. (careful)

3. Teachers couldn't be rude to students or parents because they had to be _____. (polite)

4. Teachers couldn't ignore students who needed help because that was _____. (helpful)

5. Teachers couldn't lose their temper in class because they had to be _____. (patient)

6. Teachers couldn't tell lies to parents or principals because they had to be _____. (honest)

7. Teachers couldn't treat students badly because that was _____. (kind)

8. Teachers couldn't smile or chat during class all the time because they thought it was _____. (friendly)

LIVEWORKSHEETS