Read the following text about Recycling clothes:

Recycling Clothes

Many teenagers like buying new clothes. Some people buy many t-shirts, shoes, and hoodies every month. Sometimes they do not need these clothes.
Old clothes can create pollution. Many clothes go to the trash and affect the planet.

There are different ways to help:

- donate old clothes
- recycle clothes
- reuse clothes
- buy second-hand clothes

Recycling clothes is good for the environment. It can also save money. Some teenagers now prefer thrift shops because they are cheap and eco-friendly.
We do not need to buy new clothes all the time. Small actions can help the planet.
