

A. Join the relative clauses:

1. Steve Callahan was a naval architect who
 - ...found her were alarmed.
2. The three forest workers who
 - ...loved designing and sailing boats.
3. The stories of two people who
 - ...also helped to attract more fish.
4. The raft gradually developed its own island ecology as crustaceans and seaweed attached themselves, which
 - ...survived against incredible odds.
 - ...that he had built himself.
5. After spending the night in the hut, she heard voices,
 - ...she had found at the crash site.
6. He was sailing a boat
 - ...she found some gasoline to clean her wound.
7. "I value each moment
 - ...whose safety experience was incredible.
8. For food, she only had some candy that
 - ...which to her sounded like the voices of angels.
9. "I felt no fear because it was the same environment
 - ...that I knew from home."
10. She came across a path that day. It led her to a small hut where
 - ...that is not spent in pain, desperation, hunger, thirst or loneliness."
11. He's gotten help from a girl