The Cool Pool
Reading Comprehension

Directions: Read the passage, then answer the questions.

It was a good day to go to the pool. Cooper did not have school. He went to the pool at noon. He took off his shoes by the pool. He put one foot in the pool. The water felt cool. He put his other foot in, too. Soon, he was in the pool.

He stood in the cool water. He was in a good mood. He swam in the pool all afternoon. Soon it was time to go home. He got food for his dad to cook. It was still a good pool day. He wants to go back to the pool soon.
