Buying textbooks

A: Hey, you're in my English class!

B: Yes, I am.

A: Did you buy the textbook yet?

B: No, it's really expensive.

A: How much is it?

B: The original price is over $200.

A: We could buy it from a former student.

B: We could also buy the used version.

A: That is a great idea!

B: I will give you the website to buy used books.

A: Thank you so much.

B: No problem at all.

Class registration

A: When are you going to register for classes?

B: My registration date is next month.

A: That is terrible.

B: Yeah, it is very late.

A: Mine is next week.

B: Why is your date so early?

A: I am a student athlete.

B: Maybe I should play a sport.

A: Soccer tryouts are tomorrow.

B: I don't like soccer.

A: Would you rather have a late registration date?

B: I actually would.

Too many full classes

A: How many classes did you manage to get?

B: I only got two.

A: I only got one.

B: There are too many full classes at this college.

A: I never get the classes I need.

B: Have you tried asking the professor for a spot?

A: That doesn't work all the time.

B: At this point, we will graduate in 10 years.

A: That is so early.

B: What are you talking about?

A: I think we will graduate in 15 years.

B: You are funny.

First day of school

A: Are you excited for the first day of school?

B: No. I am very afraid.

A: What is to be afraid about?

B: I am afraid of the teacher.

A: But you haven't even met her yet?

B: I have heard bad things about her.

A: What bad things?

B: I heard that she doesn't let anyone laugh.

A: That is ridiculous.

B: The older kids told me that.

A: They're just trying to scare you.

B: Oh, really? Thank goodness.

A new student

A: I have never seen you before.

B: I am a new student.

A: Where are you from?

B: I am from Japan.

A: I love Japan!

B: What do you love about it?

A: I love the food, the culture, and the location.

B: I could show you around some day.

A: That would be so fun!

B: But first, can you show me around here?

A: It would be my pleasure.

B: Let's start after school.
