For each question, choose the correct answer.

Basketball in Our Town

In our town, basketball is a very popular sport. Every weekend, children and teenagers play basketball in the park. There are two basketball courts where they can have fun and practice their skills. Many friends come together to play games, and everyone is welcome to join.

The basketball team, the Town Tigers, practices every Tuesday and Thursday evening. They have a coach who helps the players improve. The team is very friendly and helps new players to try out. Every month, they play with other teams in the area. The matches are exciting, and many people come to watch the game.

In summer, the town has a basketball competition. Teams from different schools join the competition to find the winner. It is a great way for players to show their talent and teamwork. Many families come to enjoy the games, and there are fun activities for children as well.

Basketball is not only a fun sport; it also helps people stay active and healthy. Playing basketball is a fantastic way to make new friends and enjoy time with family and friends.
