PHIL COLLINS – ANOTHER DAY IN PARADISE

calls out to the man ,
'Sir, you ?
It's and I've nowhere to ,
Is there somewhere can ?'

on, look back pretends he her to whistle as he the ,
Seems embarrassed there

Oh , 'cause it's another for and in Oh , it's just another for ,
and in , it

calls out to the man , He she's been ,
blisters on the soles of her , but she's .

Oh , 'cause it's another
for and in
Oh , it's just another for ,
and in , it

Oh Lord, is there nothing more ?
Oh Lord, there must be you .

You from the lines on her ,
You that she's there been moved on from ,
'Cause she didn't fit in

Chorus

SONG COMPREHENSION

After completing the song, read the lyrics and answer the following multiple choice questions:

1. The song's theme makes reference to:
   a. Poor people
   b. Rich people
   c. Homeless people
   d. Religious people

2. In first stanza the word "sir" refers to:
   a. A passerby
   b. Her partner
   c. God
   d. None of the above

3. What is the woman asking for?
   a. Money
   b. Help
   c. Food
   d. A place to spend the night

4. Why doesn't the man help the woman?
   a. He doesn't have any money
   b. He doesn't care
   c. He doesn't have information
   d. He doesn't know how to help her

5. Why does the singer say we are in paradise?
   a. 'Cause we're not on the street
   b. 'Cause we're in God's home
   c. 'Cause we have everything
   d. 'Cause we have money

6. Why do we usually ignore homeless people?
   a. 'Cause they're different
   b. 'Cause we don't trust them
   c. 'Cause there's nothing we can do
   d. 'Cause we don't understand them