Listen to the songs and number them in the order you hear them.

I guess that I don't need that though Now you're just somebody that I used to know
And all those things we used to, used to, used to, used to do Hey girl, what's up? It used to, used to be just me and you
You and me, we used to be together Everyday together, always Used to have a little Now I have a lot
Tommy used to work on the docks Union's been on strike He's down on his luck It's tough, so tough
Said, said, said I remember when we used to sit In a government yard in Trenchtown
Wake up in the morning with a head like 'what ya done?' This used to be the life but I don't need another one
I used to be lunatic from the gracious days I used to be woebegone and so restless nights

I used to love her But I had to kill her
I used to rule the world Seas would rise when I gave the word Now in the morning I sleep alone Sweep the streets I used to own
There was a game we used to play We would hit the town on Friday night And stay in bed until Sunday We used to be so free We were living for the love we had and Living not for reality
And you used to be so sweet I heard you say That my love was an addiction
Is this the place we used to love? Is this the place that I've been dreaming of?
I used to buy my faith in worship But then my chance to heaven slipped I used to worry about the future But then I throw my caution to the wind
Yeah, I, I know it's hard to remember The people we used to be It's even harder to picture That you're not here next to me
