"To" or "For"?

POUR

TO + V (expressing a goal)

FOR + N

Use to or for to fill in the blanks.

1. Peter Norman wore a badge ..... show his solidarity.

2. I need to go to the sports shop ..... buy new trainers.

3. That year they went to Wembley stadium ..... watch the English Football League cup final.

4. They were banned from the Olympic Village ..... mixing politics and athletics.

5. You will need at least 30 euros ..... buy the tickets ..... the match.

6. He's training ..... take part in the next London marathon.

7. On the podium, Smith and Carlos took a stand ..... civil rights.

8. Sorry ..... being late. There was a traffic jam because of the supporters.

9. You need much determination ..... be successful.

10. Thank you ..... helping me ..... get ready for the competition.

11. Simon 's gone into town ..... look for a new tennis racket.

12. Here is a new basketball. This is ..... you.

13. They raised their black-gloved fists during the anthem ..... fight injustice.

14. Jesse Owens decided to take part in the 1936 Olympics ..... defy stereotypes about African American athletes.

15. In 2018, Simone Biles shared her personal story as a victim of a sexual assault ..... challenge sexual harassment.

16. Don't forget to bring everything ..... the match tomorrow.

17. Muhammad Ali was one of the first athletes to make a political statement about the fight ..... racial equality in the United States.

18. Colin Kaepernick took a knee during the national anthem at the NFL games ..... denounce police brutality and social injustice against minorities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS