Bullied or bullying ?

I have been bullied
I have been a bully
I have watched and done nothing
when others were bullied.
When I was bullied
I felt like an outsider
different, scared, lonely, misunderstood, angry
like garbage
like it would never end.
When I bullied others
I felt like I had power.
Bullies like power
and the silence of others
especially bystanders
who watch and do nothing.
Bullies look like they have all the power
but they don't.
Bullies are afraid
of being called out
of becoming the outsider.
When the bully is owned
the bullying stops
like that.
So really,
who has the power ?
You.
You have the power
to give someone their life back to stop the endless torment.
You can be the light.
Break the silence.
Speak out.
Make the bully the outsider.
It might feel hard.
It might feel even harder
if the bully is a friend.
You won't want to tell on him
betray him
make her feel bad.
And you won't,
you will help him
you will help her Inspire to their better selves
be a better person
and that is true friendship.
In the future,
I may be bullied
but I will not bully
and I will not be a bystander.
That is my pledge to you and to myself.

How about you ?
