Spot & Fix: Units 4–5

Food, cooking and plans · Find the mistakes before your teacher does!

Name: _____

A. Correct or wrong?

Read each sentence carefully. Choose correct or wrong.

1 I am like spicy food.

2 There isn't any sugar in the cupboard.

3 We don't have some milk, so I'll buy it.

4 This soup is too hot to eat right now.

5 The kitchen isn't enough big for ten people.

6 I would rather stay home tonight.

7 She would prefer eat pasta for dinner.

8 It might rain tomorrow, so take an umbrella.

9 My brother cooks very slow.

10 Are you like Mexican food?

11 There is no bread, so I'll buy some.

12 He always is late for dinner.

13 We'll probably have dinner at eight.

14 There are too much people in this restaurant.

15 She would prefer to drink water.

16 Do you like cooking with your family?

B. Fix the mistake

The mistake is in red. Write the correct word(s) in the box.

1 My dad is like cooking on Sundays.

2 Is there some salt in the kitchen?

3 This coffee is enough sweet for me.

4 The box is too much heavy to carry.

5 I would rather to eat fish today.

6 Would you prefer eat at home or go out?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7 She speaks very quick.

8 We never are late for class.

9 There aren't no apples left.

10 It mights be cold tonight.

11 I am agree with you.

12 My grandmother cooks careful.

C. Fix the recipe: Banana Pancakes

A student wrote this recipe. The steps are mixed up, one step is missing, and some verbs are not the best ones.

Ingredients: 2 bananas · 2 eggs · 1 cup of flour · 1 cup of milk · butter · honey

1. Put the steps in order (1–8). Number 4 is the missing step. 2. Choose a better verb, or OK if the verb is good.

OK · peel · mash · melt · pour · boil · grate

Step	Order	Better verb
a. Serve the pancakes with honey.
b. Add the eggs and the milk to the bananas.
c. Cook some butter in a frying pan.
d. Take off the skin of the bananas.
e. Turn the pancake over after two minutes.
f. Hit the bananas in a bowl with a fork.
g. Put a little of the mixture into the pan.

3. Write the verb for the missing step 4: _____ in the flour.

4. Complete the recipe with First, Then, Next, After that or Finally.

_____, peel the bananas and mash them with a fork.

_____, add the eggs, the milk and the flour, and mix everything.

_____, melt some butter and pour a little mixture into the pan.

_____, turn the pancake over after two minutes.

_____, serve the pancakes with honey. Enjoy!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D. Be the editor

Tom's email has 10 mistakes. Find them in order. Choose the line and write the correct word(s).

1	Hi Carla,
2	Next Saturday is my mum's birthday, and we are going to cook a special dinner.
3	My dad is going to make lasagne because everybody are like it.
4	We don't have some cheese, so I will buy it tomorrow.
5	My sister would rather to make a chocolate cake, but our oven is too small.
6	She would prefer buy one from the bakery.
7	I think it will be ready on time, because the bakery always is open on Saturdays.
8	There aren't chairs enough for ten people, so my cousins might bring some.
9	My grandmother cooks very careful, so she will make the salad.
10	It may be a little cold, so we'll eat inside.
11	There is too many food for only ten people!
12	Are you like to come? I think you will to love it.
13	See you soon, Tom

Mistake	Line	Correct word(s)
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

E. My editing checklist

- am / is / are + like, want, agree? Remove am / is / are.
- Negative or question? Use any, not some.
- too + adjective · adjective + enough.
- would rather + verb · would prefer + to + verb.
- HOW someone does something? Add -ly.
- always / never: after be, before other verbs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS