

1. Choose the correct item.

- This door is very weak. I think you _____ a new one _____.
1. have ... installed
2. must have ... install
3. should have ... installed
- Kate _____ the programme set up this morning.
1. had 2. has 3. has had
- We _____ our new kitchen installed tomorrow.
1. have 2. are having 3. had
- She _____ her bag stolen on the underground last week.
1. had 2. had had 3. was having
- Where can I have my ears _____?
1. pierce 2. pierces 3. pierced
- Martin had his portrait _____ by a street artist in Paris.
1. paint 2. paints 3. painted
- Honest, the door _____ all by itself.
1. opened
2. is having opened
3. had it opened
- They _____ the documents drawn up as we speak.
1. have 2. are having 3. have had
- I think I _____ my dress dry-cleaned for the ball.
1. have 2. will have 3. am having

2. Write the sentence in the causative.

- Look, The Smith _____ at the moment.
have the roof to repair
- I think I'm going _____ next month.
get my kitchen to paint
- Oxana _____ tomorrow. She's already phoned the master.
have her computer to fix
- Eliza _____ in the local agency when she finishes it.
get her course work to print
- Look how clean the carpets are! We _____ .
have they to clean

