

1. Put the verbs in brackets in the correct passive form.

1. A: _____ (the walls/paint) yet?
B: No, they _____ (paint) tomorrow.
2. A: That's a beautiful statue.
B: Yes. It _____ (sculpt) by a local artist last year.
A: But I didn't see last month.
B: Yes it _____ (install/just) here.
3. A: They are building a new concert hall in town.
B: I know. I hope, It _____ (open) by the mayor next month.
4. A: We _____ (amaze) by what we see here.
B: I know. These exhibits _____ (collect) for the past 50 years and the exposition still grows.

2. Fill in: by or with.

- Some buildings in Kolomna were designed _____ a famous architect F.Kazakov.
- The walls were painted _____ red paint.
- The marshmallow factory in Kolomna is visited _____ hundreds of tourists every day.
- The pyramids were built _____ the Egyptians long ago.
- The cars were covered _____ mud after the swamp rally raid.

3. Rewrite the sentences in the passive. (One word in each blank!)

- Visitors mustn't bring food into the gallery.
= The food _____ into the gallery.
- John drew the portrait. = _____ John.
- A local artist will paint a mural.
= The mural _____ a local artist.
- The art gallery displays many famous paintings.
= Many famous paintings _____ this art gallery.
- The police have recovered the stolen artefacts.
= The stolen artefacts _____ the police.
- Leonardo da Vinci painted the Mona Lisa.
= The Mona Lisa _____ Leonardo da Vinci.
- Jack invited Mary to the art exhibition.
= Mary _____ to the art exhibition _____ Jack.
- People can't take photos in the museum.
= The photos _____ in the museum.