Coffee Shop

During this class you will:

- Talk about coffee shops.
- Analyze different kinds of coffee.
- Discuss different flavors of coffee.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Warm-up

Share your thoughts.

- Do you like coffee shops? What is your favorite coffee shop? What makes it special?

- Describe your perfect cup of coffee.

- Do you prefer coffee or tea? Caffeinated or decaf?

And you can quote me…

Read and answer the questions.

"I never laugh until I've had my coffee."

-- Clark Gable
(American Actor, 1901-1960)

- What does this quote mean to you?

- Are you able to do things without coffee?

- Do you usually drink coffee in the morning or afternoon?

- Does coffee affect your mood?

Speak your mind.

Share your thoughts and opinions.

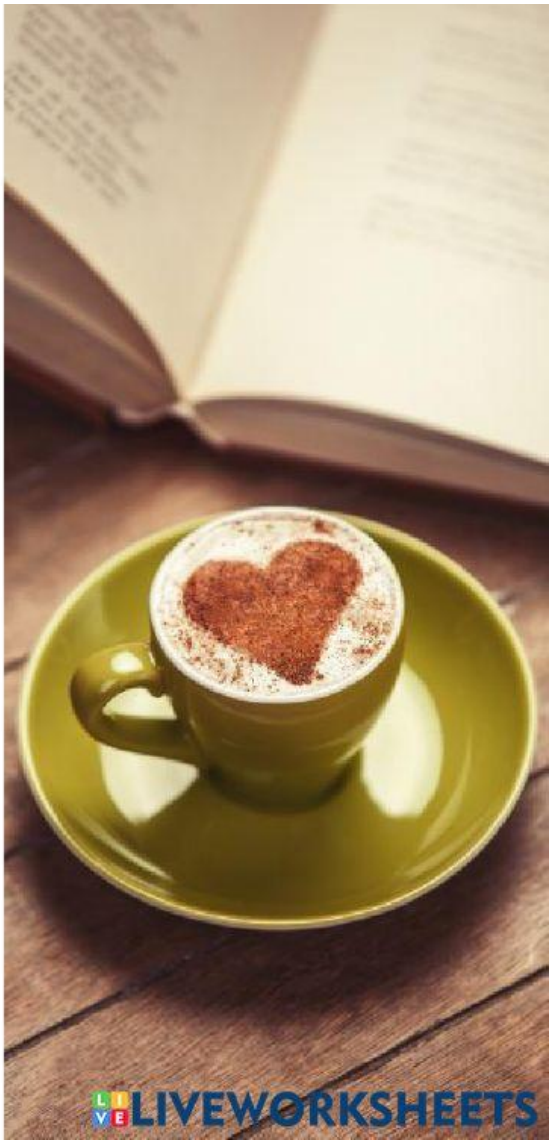
Which is better?

- To prepare coffee at home or to go out to drink coffee?

- Live music or recorded music at the coffee shop?

- To eat something with your coffee or to have only coffee?

- To go alone or to go with friends?



Imagine that!

As a class, create a story.

You have been invited on a cooking show. You have been asked to show viewers how to prepare the perfect cup of coffee.

Describe how you will prepare the perfect cup of coffee for the audience.

Think about:

- What ingredients will you need?
- Any special equipment?
- Any special techniques?

Answer me this!

Take turns asking each other questions.

1. Do you prefer coffee black? With milk? With sugar? With milk and sugar?

2. What is a mocha?

3. What is the difference between a latte and a cappuccino?

4. Do you like to order food with your coffee?

5. Do you like cold or hot coffee?

6. Do you like whipped cream on your coffee?

Before you go!

Here's some cultural fun:

Seattle is a seaport city on the west coast of the United States. It has great landscapes and is a great way to spend a weekend vacation.

Seattle is very well-known for their coffee. Shops like Seattle Coffee and Starbucks were founded in Seattle.

- Have you ever been to Seattle?
- Would you like to go to Seattle? Why or why not?
- Would you go to the famous coffee shops there?
- Do you have a famous place in your country that has a coffee shop?
- Talk about a coffee shop experience you have had.
