ECONOMICS

Grade 9 | Factors of Production

Name: _____
Date: _____

Activity 1 – Choose the correct answer

Select the correct factor of production for each example.

1. A baker working in a bakery is an example of:

- A. Land
- B. Labour
- C. Capital
- D. Enterprise

2. An oven used to bake bread is an example of:

- A. Land
- B. Labour
- C. Capital
- D. Enterprise

3. A natural water source used by a business is an example of:

- A. Land
- B. Labour
- C. Capital
- D. Enterprise

4. A person who organises the resources of a business and takes risks is an example of:

- Land
- Labour
- Capital
- Enterprise

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 2 – Sort the resources!

Ayesha wants to start a bakery. She needs different resources to operate her business.

Drag each resource into the correct category.

Resources:

- Land used for the bakery
- Baker
- Oven
- Entrepreneur who organises the business
- Water
- Delivery driver
- Dough mixer
- Business owner who takes risks

Categories:

1. LAND
2. LABOUR
3. CAPITAL
4. ENTERPRISE

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 3 – Complete the statements

Choose the correct factor of production to complete each statement.

1. The natural resources used in production are known as _____.

2. Human effort used in producing goods and services is called _____.

3. Machinery and equipment used in production are examples of _____.

4. The person who organises production and takes risks represents _____.

Activity 4 – Economics in action

Read the following situation carefully and complete the blanks using the correct factor of production.

A company decides to establish a tourist resort in Sri Lanka. The resort uses a beautiful beachfront location, employs chefs and hotel staff, purchases furniture, swimming pool equipment and vehicles, and is managed by an entrepreneur who organises the business and takes financial risks.

Identify the factor of production represented by each item.

1. The beachfront location: _____
2. The chefs and hotel staff: _____
3. The furniture and swimming pool equipment: _____
4. The entrepreneur who organises and manages the resort: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS