Lesson 9 - Storytelling

Let us enjoy reading this story of Sheba and The Monkey.

Sheba, the queen of the jungle, was fond of babies. One day, she announced, "I order all the animals to come to my palace with their babies. The animal who has the most beautiful baby will be awarded a prize".

All the animals came to Sheba's palace with their babies.

Sheba started checking the babies one by one. She came to a monkey and said "What an ugly baby! You will not get the prize".

The baby monkey started to cry. The Mama monkey said, "What a silly queen she is! Who wants her prize? You are my jewel, my dear child. You are more precious to me than anything under the sky".

MORAL : A mother loves her child more than anything in the world.
