as: work as + ‘a job’, choose smth as a career, the same as to: similar to, look forward to, go to bed at: good at smth, bad at smth, stare at on: on a full stomach, go on holiday/on vacation

No preposition: leave university, go home, discuss smth

Add - or a preposition

1. After a long day at work, Sarah went _____ bed earlier than usual.
2. The little boy stared _____ the colorful balloons floating in the sky.
3. When she was young, she decided to choose a career _____ a veterinarian.
4. We spent the entire evening discussing_____problems and possible solutions.
5. Tom is bad _____ remembering people's names.
6. My new phone is the same _____ the one I had before.
7. After two years of study, he left_____university and started his own business.
8. Emma is good _____ learning foreign languages.
9. Everyone was happy and talking while going _____home after the concert.
10. It is not a good idea to go swimming _____ a full stomach.
11. This painting is very similar _____ the one we saw in the museum.
12. Many students hope to work _____ engineers in the future.
13. Last summer, my family went _____ vacation to the mountains.
14. The children looked forward _____ the school trip for several weeks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS