Name: _____

The Lazy Boy Turned Useful Basket.

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Timmy who was incredibly lazy. He would spend his days lounging on the couch, playing video games and watching TV instead of doing anything productive.

One day, as Timmy was napping on the couch, he was visited by a fairy. The fairy was displeased with Timmy's laziness and decided to teach him a lesson. The fairy waved her wand and turned Timmy into a basket.

At first, Timmy was very confused and frightened. He didn't know what had happened to him and couldn't move or speak. But soon enough, he realized that he was now a basket and that the fairy had done this to make him useful.

Timmy was taken to a market and placed on a vendor's stand. People started using him to carry their groceries, fruits and vegetables. As Timmy lay there, he realized that he was now useful and had a purpose.

Over time, Timmy grew to enjoy being a basket. He loved helping people carry their groceries and seeing the joy on their faces when they found him to be the perfect size and shape. Timmy had never felt so fulfilled in his life.
